

A sudden break-through on the dike at the foot of Helmsdale avenue in East Kildonan occurred about 8 a.m. Tuesday when only half a dozen workers were on the scene. A desperate radio appeal brought 150 volunteers to the battle and the situation was soon brought under control. Operations are shown above as the sandbags were being filled and piled into place.

W.P.G. F.P. May 9 1950

Homeless May