

E.K. Schools Superintendent H. R. Haines To Retire Friday

A man who has spent most of his life teaching the children of East Kildonan will retire Friday after 49 years' of service in Manitoba — 29 of which were in East Kildonan.

Howard R. Haines, of 170 Hazeldell avenue, came to the old East Kildonan Collegiate (now Lord Wolseley School) in 1928 and taught mathematics for 14 years.

In 1942 he was transferred to Prince Edward School where he took over the duties of principal and also taught literature. Mr. Haines stayed there until the spring of 1955 when he was appointed principal of Melrose Junior High School when that new school opened. At the end of '55 he was appointed superintendent of schools in East Kildonan, which position he now holds.

Mr. Haines was born at Birtle, Man., and received his public schooling there and at Grandview and Brandon Collegiate. After obtaining his grade 11 in 1908 he went to his first school a few miles from Birtle. He obtained his BA in 1925 and B.Ed. in 1939 from the University of Manitoba.

When he secured his Bachelor of Arts degree, he majored in political economy and philosophy.

Prior to coming to East Kildonan Mr. Haines was principal for six years in intermediate schools, seven years principal of Killarney Collegiate, and one year as principal of Dauphin Collegiate.

During his high school teaching career 16 of his pupils won Isbister Scholarships in 18 years. Five of these were in Killarney and 11 in East Kildonan.

Always enthusiastic about sports, Mr. Haines some years ago helped form the Suburban Collegiate Athletic Association and served it as president for two years. He has coached teams to championships in soccer, baseball, hockey, basketball and track.

Mr. Haines has served the Board of Stewards of John Black Church for 10 years, two of which he was chairman of the Board. In 1945 he was appointed chairman of the Provisional Board of Directors set up to organize the East Kildonan Community Club.

To honor Mr. Haines a reception will be held by the teachers of East Kildonan in Melrose High School June 25th. All former students of Mr. Haines' literature classes, at Prince Edward and mathematics classes at East Kildonan Collegiate, along with all present and former teachers, are invited to attend.

H. R. HAINES

Melrose Rangers Chelsea United Tie Soccer Game

Melrose Rangers and Chelsea United battled to a 1-1 draw in a well-played soccer match Monday night on the Melrose Park grounds.

Both teams played well in the first half but were weak around the goal-mouth, which resulted in a scoreless first half.

The second half opened with Brian Jones, of the Rangers, sending a hard drive towards the United goal. Goal-tender Richard Trovich could not see through the maze of players, and the ball went into the corner of the net.

Led by David Dudeck and Walter Christie, United pressed hard but