the school. He said he hopes the request for another hut to ease the strain will act as further proof of the problem.

One of the proposals for the school is to add a third storey, which would contain a theatre along with other facilities.

"I don't like them but, until we get the proper facilities from the provincial government, I think we're going to have to bring in the huts," trustee Alex Novak commented.

The proposal must be approved by the school board before being forwarded to the capital facilities committee.
