

KILDONAN OLD TIMERS' MEETING

Elect Officers and Complete Arrangements For Annual Ball March 10.

A meeting of the old timers of Kildonan was called and largely attended at the residence of Ernie G. McBain, Kildonan East, last night. There was a large turnout. Officers for the ensuing year were chosen, E. G. McBain being elected president, and D. W. McIvor, secretary. The meeting decided to follow the plan adopted in former years of setting aside a night for the giving of a reception and ball to Kildonan old timers and their friends.

The date set for the event is the evening of March 10, and work will be at once put underway by the different committees so as to make the coming ball a feature of the season.

The following committees have the work in hand: Hall committee, Ernie G. McBain, chairman; John H. Gunn, J. B. Henderson. Printing committee, D. W. McIvor, chairman; James Hamilton, Geo. B. Munroe, J. H. McGrath, W. J. Major. Music committee, Angus M. McKay, chairman; H. C. Whellams, W. R. Hamilton, Alex. Munroe. Finance committee, Ernie Whellams, chairman; Alex. Munroe; John H. Gunn, Charles Midwinter, Donald Munroe, Bert Blanchard, John H. Sutherland. Reception committee, H. C. Whellams, chairman; James Hamilton, D. Y. Matheson, W. R. Hamilton, Ernie G. McBain, Alex. Matheson, J. H. McGrath, Alex. Munroe, Geo. B. Munroe, A. Brazler, and J. H. Sutherland. Refreshment committee, W. R. Hamilton, chairman; A. Brazler, G. B. Munroe, Angus M. McKay, John H. Sutherland, and W. J. Major. Transportation committee, Geo. F. Munroe, chairman; Ernie Whellams, Charles Midwinter, James Hamilton. Master of Ceremonies, J. H. Braden. Doorkeeper, A. G. Matheson.

About three hundred guests will be invited. Special music will be engaged and arrangements made with the street railway to convey guests to and from the Kildonan agricultural hall where the ball will be given.

The members of the association will meet at the residence of Alex. Munroe, East Kildonan, on Thursday night of this week, to complete arrangements, prepare dancing programme and will send out invitations. It is desired that all the old timers who can find it convenient be in attendance at this meeting.
