

New Kiwanis Club Is Formed By East Kildonan Residents

Citizens of East Kildonan took a progressive step last Tuesday evening when they formed a Kiwanis club.

The meeting was held in John Black Church and was attended by Percy K. Clarkson, governor of the Winnipeg Kiwanis, and George Brown, chairman of the Welfare committee. Larry W. Roos, field representative of Kiwanis, of the Chicago office, conducted the organization part of the meeting, explaining the aims and objects of the organization, stating that there were over 2,650 clubs in existence in Canada and the U.S.A.

With the formation of a club in East Kildonan there are clubs now in Winnipeg, St. Boniface, St. James and East Kildonan.

It is expected that charter night will be held on July 21 when it is hoped some 400 members will attend from the various districts.

The officers elected to carry on for 1947 are: President, Neil K. Brown; vice-president, V. M. Snow; sec.-treasurer, K. W. Sutherland; directors, P. S. Camsell, Geo. M. Duncan, Dr. W. J. Hart, D. P.
