

Official Opening Of Lord Wolseley School Addition On Friday

The four room addition to Lord Wolseley School will be officially opened by Mayor J. L. Bodie on Friday at 7 p.m.

Members of the East Kildonan Council have been invited to attend, also H. E. Riter, school inspector; principals and members of the staff; E. Prain, architect, and F. E. Beckett, former chairman of the School Board. All members of the School Board will be in attendance, and J. E. Scarrow, principal of Lord Wolseley School, has been asked to introduce the speakers.

The School Board extends a cordial invitation to all interested residents of East Kildonan to attend this official opening. The addition will be open to public inspection immediately following the opening ceremony until 9 p.m.
