Services of Dedication Will be Conducted Sunday by Rev. T. A. Munroe

Dedication services for the new Morse Place United church, construction of which has now been completed, will be held Sunday, with Rev. T. A. Munroe, president of the Manitoba conference officiating, and Rev. W. L. T. Patteson, a former pastor, as preacher. They will be assisted in the evening by Rev. T. B. Wilson.

The new edifice fits into the north side of the old church, which may be opened out, when required, by the use of accordion doors, the combined seating capacity being 350.

It is a frame stucco building, 40 by 32 feet, plastered inside, costing complete, with furnishings, $7,000. Two pipeless furnaces have been installed to heat the two auditoriums, and the old structure has been renovated to conform as nearly as possible with the style of the new building.

Sunday services only will be conducted in the new section, all week-night activities to be held in the old auditorium, which has been equipped to accommodate gymnastic classes.

The first regular minister was Rev. T. Hoskins, followed later by Rev. Arthur Rose, Rev. W. L. T. Patteson, Rev. John Clark and Rev. W. S. Atchison, who is the present pastor.

Dedication ceremonies will conclude with a banquet to be held in the church Monday evening at 6.30 o'clock. A programme of music and speeches will follow.
