

Prince Edward School Opens New Auditorium

A capacity crowd was in attendance Wednesday evening for the official opening of the new Prince Edward School auditorium.

Following the introductory prayer by Rev. Jack Truman, Les. Wiley, supervisor of education for East Kildonan, spoke briefly, as did L. A. McMahon, chairman of the East Kildonan School Board, and A. J. Anderson, principal.

Mrs. S. Mallin, president of the Home and School Association, presided over the evening. Mrs. Paul Lewko, Home and School secretary, thanked the speakers.

The grades 1 and 4 choir under the direction of Miss L. Mastin rendered two selections, and Mrs. A. Stewart directed the grades 5 and 6 choir.

Miss I. Cartmell directed a group of grade 6 square dancers. Pupils taking part included Margaret Lamb, Sharon Hull, Doreen Mitchell, Sharon Lovelace, Donald McDonald, Arthur George, Pat Lindsay and Billie Shaver.

Refreshments were served by members of the Home and School Association.
