

Parents, Teachers Meet At Sherwood School Open House Sept. 27th

The new Sherwood School in the Sherwood Park community in East Kildonan held "Open House" on Friday evening, Sept. 27th, when over 300 parents and friends attended to look over the new school, to meet the teachers, to make new friends and to renew old acquaintances.

L. A. McMahon, chairman of the school board; Mrs. Anderson, school board member for Ward 3; and Miss McIntyre, principal of the school, welcomed the guests.

Mayor Suttie and Councillors Armstrong and Reid joined school board members Inglis, McEwen, Matheson, and G. F. Saunders, secretary-treasurer of the school board, in lending distinction to the gathering.

Inspector Booth and Miss Gertrude Lowery, music supervisor, were also present. A. J. Anderson, principal of Prince Edward School; A. V. Mastin, principal of Salisbury; Miss Anderson, principal of Neil Campbell; and Miss Hudson, principal of Angus McKay, brought greetings from their respective staffs.

Lunch was served by the ladies of the Salisbury Home and School Association under the chairmanship of Mrs. Franklin, assisted by the parents of the Sherwood School.

The Sherwood School "Library Fund" was started as a result of donations made by the visitors, the sum of $100 being contributed.
