

Silver Jubilee Of St. Stephen's

Anglican Congregation in East Kildonan to Mark Anniversary
With Week of Meetings

Celebrating the 25th anniversary of the formation of St. Stephen's Anglican church, East Kildonan, a week of special service and congregational meetings will commence Sunday, January 9, and will conclude Sunday, January 16. The annual meeting of the congregation will be held Monday at 8 p.m. following a church supper at 6.30.

On Sunday, January 9, at 11 a.m., Rev. W. E. Jackson, of St. John's cathedral will be guest preacher, and at 7 p.m. Rev. George Calvert, of St. Matthew's church, will conduct the service. Throughout the week meetings of a social nature will be held by the organizations of the church in the parish hall. Tuesday evening the woman's auxiliary will entertain the congregation and Rev. F. J. Ison will give an illustrated lecture on Holland. On Wednesday the Mothers' Social union will be hosts to the women of the parish at 3 o'clock in the Washington Avenue mission. Thursday evening at 8.30 the Anglican Young People's association will entertain the members of the church at a social gathering in the parish hall. Bringing the week to a close the men of the parish will hold a silver tea Saturday afternoon in aid of the funds of the parish.

Sunday, January 16, His Grace Archbishop Harding will preach at the morning service, and will admit R. W. Ross to the office of lay reader. In the evening Rev. H. Sherstone will preach and the choir will present their annual musical service.

one
the
has
com
and chur
ront

Re

Job

t

E

c

M

B

In
noth
there whic

On

A