

school board was proposed by Betty Damskov and responded to by Mr. E. Boyd, chairman of the board; that to the collegiate staff was proposed by Gwen Foster, and replied to by Miss A. R. Gray; and to the graduating class by Bernice Warne, responded to by Fred. Longstaffe. Priscilla Hughes gave a very interesting history of the class; Millan Nickle provided a humorous prophesy concerning several of the graduates; and Peter Weisner gave the valedictory address.

At the close of the programme the Governor-General's medal for general proficiency was presented to Peter Weisner, who was chosen by the staff as the best all-round student among the eighty-six graduates. The presentation was made by Mr. H. R. Haines, assistant principal of the collegiate.

The Aristocrats six-piece orchestra provided music for the dance which followed, and a day long to be remembered by the students was brought to a close at 12.30.

LIST OF GRADUATES

The members of the graduating class are:

George Alexander, Jack Blair, Elizabeth Boldt, Harris Bridger, Mary Baalen, Marian Balayewich, Lucy Beacham, Betty Bell, William Bate, Jennie Biasko, Harry Botterill, Alyson Campbell, Barrie Campbell, Bernice Clarke, Kathleen Carson, Charlie Colvin, Betty Damskov, Doris Daniels, Arthur Don, Kenneth Duffield, Raymond Dodds, Lona Duerks, James Egan, Milton Fairs, Michael Fleece, June Flower, Ruth Fletcher, Gwen Foster, Archie Gray, Frances Gray, Bernard Holochuk, Orval Halverson, Priscilla Hughes, Buck Hagarty, Steve Harris, June Harvey, Joan Harry, Helen Hran, Jack Hartog, John Hunt, George Inkster, Leslie Ironside, Edith Kirk, John Korchynski, Edward Kotowich, Mary Kowal, Walter Kwasnicki, John Karbonic, Fred. Longstaffe, Frances Latoski, Sylvia Linderholm, Ruth Milligan, Boyce Martin, Irene McKenzie, Jean Moorcroft, Ted Newson, Millan Nickle, Lillian Neilsen, Nick Partyka, Olga Palka, Olga Perchaluk, Dorothy Petrie, Eddie Proctor, Leslie Prodan, Dwight Reid, Charlie Relkie, Arthur Robinson, Jack Rickner, Harry Sampson, Betty Sanders, Stanley Shaw, Arthur Staves, Douglas Strain, John Strain, Jack Stacey, Walter Stefaniw, Margaret Small, Mary Sobotkewich, Albert Sulkers, James Tease, Henry Wildman, Peter Weisner, Robert Wyatt, Sophie Warga, George Yates and Glen Younger.