

East Kildonan Collegiate

A spring tea will be held in the Collegiate (Lord Wolseley school) on Friday afternoon, May 19, from 3 to 5.30. This is being arranged by the staff and the lady members of the school board in aid of the graduation fund. Musical items will be arranged by Miss Seale, director of the Glee club.

Graduation exercises for the Grade 11 classes will be held on Tuesday, May 23, in King Memorial church, beginning at 3.15 p.m. The special speaker for the occasion will be Rev. Terence J. Finlay, rector of Holy Trinity church.

A social hour will follow the service when tea will be served under the direction of Mrs. S. Colville and Mrs. A. Warne, members of the school board. The graduates will then be taken by special bus to Picardy's salon on Broadway where a banquet will be given in their honor, followed by a dance.

At the banquet the Governor-General's medal will be presented by Hon. J. C. Dryden, Minister of Education, and the public speaking medal by the donor, Clifford Brock, K.C.

The annual competition in public speaking will be completed on Friday this week, when the six students who have survived the elimination contests will compete for the Brock medal. The judges for this occasion will be Mrs. F. Redgwell, Miss Gertrude Lowery and Rev. F. J. Ison. The winner will be presented with a medal at the graduation banquet by Clifford Brock, K.C.
