

Kildonan Collegiate Special Convocation Exercises Are Held

Last Wednesday, Sept. 20, East Kildonan Collegiate held a special Fall Convocation in King Memorial Church in honor of the graduating class of last June.

James E. Scarrow, the principal, was assisted on the platform by Rev. H. S. Dodgson and Rev. P. V. Samson. R. D. Nicholson, chairman of the school board finance committee, brought greetings from the board. Rev. George Fay, of Grey Street United Church, delivered an inspiring address.

Inspector H. E. Riter presented the Governor-General's medal to David Evans, who was also the recipient of the I.O.D.E. award which was presented by Mrs. W. T. Hannon, regent of Silver Wings Chapter.

Ken Kramer, winner of the city-wide oratorical contest sponsored by the Optimist clubs last spring, bade a very fitting farewell to the school in his valedictory address.

Mrs. W. E. Wilson, soprano, and Robert Kesler, baritone, both former pupils at the Collegiate, were soloists for the occasion. Miss Helen F. Young presided at the organ.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Blue Room of the Marlborough Hotel. David Evans recounted the amusing history of the class, while Dale Gibson as prophet gazed far into the future. Irene Homiak was M.C.
